GEO INFORMATICS ASSISTANT

This trade is a one-year duration Non Engineering Job Oriented trade. The training involves learning to install, operate, collect data through GIS and analyze the data. The trainees will be made able to capture, store, manipulate, manage and present spatial or Geographic data by using GIS and to apply digital cartography process for collection of data and produce maps, identify various component of DGPS and to use web GIS for publishing file on GEO Server.